FOUND DROWNED.—Coroner Barrett held an inquest on a man found floating in the river at the foot of Ann-street, yesterday. The deceased appeared to be about 30 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high; had on black partaleons and black roundabout; complexion dark, and hair and moustaches black. From a paper found in a pocket, deceased is supposed to have been an enlisted man. Another body was found in the water near Cobb Lock, at the Navy Yard. Deceased was dressed in the uniform of a soldier. His skull was broken. The remains of both were taken to the Dead House for identification.
